

I support RM-10867, in my opinion it takes into consideration all the major items of concern for radio amateurs. There are a few interesting ideas in the other proposals, such as the relief on bandwidth limits at the top of the 10 meter band, and limiting vanity calls to higher class licenses. These are interesting ideas, and separate from the meat and potatoes of the ARRL proposal.